CASE NO. C18-5860JLR

SHOW CAUSE MINUTE ORDER

The following minute order is made by the direction of the court, the Honorable James L. Robart, U.S. District Judge:

On October 26, 2021, the court granted the parties' joint stipulated motion to stay this matter for 90 days to allow them time to review newly-issued immigration enforcement guidelines and to engage in mediation. (10/26/21 Order (Dkt. # 78); see 10/26/21 Stip. (Dkt. # 77).) In that order, the court also struck the parties' May 26, 2022

1 trial date and associated pretrial deadlines. (10/26/21 Order at 2 (citing 4/12/21 Sched.
2 Ord. (Dkt. # 76)).)

3 On January 25, 2022, the court granted the parties' joint stipulated motion to 4 extend the stay in this case for an additional 30 days to allow the parties to continue their
5 efforts to resolve this matter. (1/25/22 Order (Dkt. # 81); see 1/24/22 Stip. (Dkt. # 80).)
6 Although more than 30 days have passed since the court entered that order, the parties
7 have not requested a further extension of the stay. (See generally Dkt.) Accordingly, it is 8 now ORDERED that counsel show cause by March 25, 2022, why the court should not 9 lift the stay in this action. Absent a timely response to this order, the court will lift the 10 stay and set a new trial date and pretrial deadlines.

11 Filed and entered this 18th day of March, 2022.
